

Accepting No for an Answer Rap

My response to your dismay I say is to look at the person in a calm way
When I listen carefully
it helps me to live peacefully

I ask questions if I don't understand Cause it helps me to live in the land
I say "okay I understand"
Cause accepting no is a better plan

I learned that calm is a skill It's just a matter of having the will I don't like trouble and that's the truth
And accepting no will always help you
